Fr Stuart Tanswell.

As you may be aware, I shall sadly be leaving Taff Rhymni Ministry Area during January to become Priest in Charge with responsibility for Dafen and Felinfoel in the Bro Lliedi Ministry Area (Llanelli).

A Ministry Area service to celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany will give us the opportunity to be together for what will probably be my last combined service. Further details will be on December's pew sheets. Fr Stuart

Saints and Holy Days - Sunday 30th November.

Andrew, Apostle - Patron Saint of Scotland

History tells us that Andrew, was a Galilean fisherman who was singled out to be Christ's first disciple, preached the Gospel in the lands around the Black Sea and in Greece and was eventually crucified on an X-shaped cross in Patras. St Andrew is the patron saint of other countries as well as Scotland.

As the first disciple of Jesus and the first apostle, St Andrew holds a central role in Christianity. He became the patron saint of many countries and people, including fishermen, Russia and of course Scotland.

Reflection for November.

Remembrance Sunday

In our churches and at our cenotaphs this Sunday the 10th November, we will remember and honour all those who have given their lives for the peace and freedom we enjoy today. We will join with people across the nation to pause to reflect on the sacrifices made by our brave service men and women.

Showing immense bravery, love and compassion they gave their lives in the cause of peace for all. As part of our services of remembrance we will observe the collective act of two minutes silence as we stand together and reflect on the price of freedom. We will honour them and commit ourselves to building the kind of world for which they died.
