Luke, Evangelist

Luke was a physician and possibly a Gentile. He was not one of the original 12 Apostles but may have been one of the 70 disciples appointed by Jesus (Luke 10). He also may have accompanied St. Paul on his missionary journeys.

Like all of the Gospel writers, he is given the title "Evangelist" for his role in spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ. Also known as a great historian, St. Luke's Gospel preserved the most extensive biography of Christ.

Luke died at age 84 in Boeotia, according to a "fairly early and widespread tradition". According to Nikephoros Kallistos Xanthopoulos, Greek historian of the 14th century (and others), Luke's tomb was located in Thebes, whence his relics were transferred to Constantinople in the year 357.

Reflection for October.

It's Harvest Festival season! And so great to still celebrate the abundance of the fruits of the earth! And scripture also talks about us knowing – and being – an even greater kind of harvest in our lives.'

And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace'. (James 3:18) 'Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness'. (2 Corinthians 9:10)

As his servants, let's encourage each other to live lives of generosity and peace-making so that we see that harvest!
